Articles of Incorporation – Non-Share

1. The undertaking of the corporation is restricted to the following

The undertaking of the corporation must be either: agricultural, artistic, charitable, educational, fraternal, historical, literary, patriotic, philanthropic, professional, religious, scientific, social, sporting or athletic nature.

2. Other provisions, if any

Choose one of the two options

- If there are no other provisions, select “None”
- If you choose “Enter your Own”, please enter the information in the text box provided.

Other provisions:

- could include provisions for classes of members
- may detail provisions for the disposal of property upon dissolution of the corporation:
 - The corporation may state that on dissolution, property may be distributed among members or to a designated organization. If the Articles of Incorporation do not specifically state that the assets can go to the members upon dissolution, this cannot be amended at a later date.
 - If provisions for property disposal upon dissolution are not laid out in the Articles of Incorporation, at the time of dissolution the members will make the decision as to who receives the property, but it must go to a charitable organization or one that is beneficial to the community.

3. Where the undertaking of the corporation is of a social nature, the address in full of the clubhouse or similar premises that the corporation will maintain

Choose one of the two options
